TO: ALL SCHEDULED AJHS ENTRANCE TEST EXAMINEES FOR DECEMBER 10-11, 2022
RE: CONTINGENCY PLAN IN CASE STORM SIGNAL IS RAISED THIS WEEKEND

In light of the recent development on Tropical storm ROSAL, the following will be the contingency plan for the administration of the AJHS Entrance Test:

DATE OF EXAM

IF STORM SIGNAL #1 IS RAISED

December 10
Batch 1 (7:00)
Batch 2 (1:30)

Exams for examinees for Batches 1 and 2 will be POSTPONED to the late exam schedule: JANUARY 21, 2023 (SATURDAY). All exam permits dated December 10 will be honored on January 21, so please make sure you keep the permits.

December 11
Batch 3 (7:00)

Exams for examinees for Batch 3 will be POSTPONED to JANUARY 22, 2023 (SUNDAY). All exam permits dated December 11 will be honored on January 22, so please make sure you keep the permits.

If, however, the storm signal is lowered on this day, then the scheduled exam for Batch 3 WILL PUSH THROUGH.

Please monitor the storm development so you will be guided. Let us all pray for good weather, especially this weekend.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. EXAMINEES WHO ARE SICK: We would like to remind parents of examinees who are sick or in quarantine to please send an email to admissions.ajhs@ateneo.edu, so we can make arrangements for your transfer to the LATE EXAM slot. The official list of examinees will be given to the Campus Security and Mobility Office today, so we need to make a note if your son cannot make it this weekend.

2. APPLICANTS WHO CREATED LATE ACCOUNTS: You can continue with your application until January 7, 2023, so you can be scheduled for the late exam on January 21. Those who are in FOR PAYMENT, DRAFT, RETURN TO APPLICANT, and even those in FOR EXAMINATION, but did not choose an exam slot can still continue with their application.

Please read the online application process posted on our webpage:
