SUBJECT	Early Dismissal for Employees Onsite on 23 July 2024

PAGASA has released Tropical Cyclone Bulletin #15 at 11:00 AM which forecasts heavy rains and possible flooding from typhoon Carina¹. Likewise, the Southwest Monsoon has brought gusty winds over Metro Manila and nearby areas.

Given this weather condition and in consideration for the safety of our employees in going home, onsite work at the Loyola campus will be suspended starting at 3:00 PM today. Employees from the School of Government, together with those from the Law School, the School of Medicine and Public Health, and the Graduate School of Business, shall follow the directions on work arrangements provided by their dean.

Please stay safe as you travel to your homes and remain vigilant during this typhoon. Let us pray for the safety of our community members and everyone in the path of Typhoon Carina.
