? Frequently Asked Questions (FAQS)

1 Is the Financial Aid Scholarship the only Scholarship that Ateneo offers?

- Of course not! Check the Ateneo website to see the other scholarships we offer. Although, do take note that the Financial Aid Scholarship is the only type of scholarship you may apply to.

2 Should I wait for the result of my Admission Application before applying for the Financial Aid Scholarship?

- No. You may apply for the Financial Aid Scholarship as soon as you have your Ateneo Application Number (AAN).

3 What are your criteria for awarding a Financial Aid Scholarship to an applicant?

- Financial Aid Scholarships are awarded on the basis of financial need, consistent academic performance, intellectual ability, and potential for greater service.

4 Is it hard being a scholar in Ateneo?

- Admittedly, even if there are higher expectations on Ateneo scholars, they are fully supported by the entire Ateneo community, specifically the Office of Admission and Aid (OAA). We also have Ateneo Gabay and the Scholars Sectoral Board who provide services that help in the academic and psychosocial adjustment of scholars.

5 I still have questions and clarifications about the different scholarships offered by Ateneo and the application procedure. Who can I talk to?

- If you have questions or concerns, please visit the Ateneo website or email scholarships@ateneo.edu. You may also visit the Office of Admission and Aid's Virtual Office through Zoom. Student assistants will be present on the dates and times stated below.
 - September 21 and 28 - Saturday, 8AM-12NN
 - October 5 and 12 - Saturday, 8AM-12NN
- Here are the Zoom Meeting details for the OAA Virtual Office:
