Subject : For the Rockwell Campus: Shift to online classes and work during the period of the Bar Examinations
Memo No. AGSB-DO-2526-004

The Ateneo Law School has been designated as a local testing center for this year's Bar Examinations. The Supreme Court of the Philippines would thus require the Rockwell Campus to be available for the whole period of the examinations.

As we would need to be off-campus during that time, we will block off September 5-14, 2025, during which all classes and work in the Rockwell Campus would shift to online-only mode.

Classes and work in the other AGSB campuses would continue in their normal modes: work would be onsite and classes would continue in the mode specified for each class.

Please be guided accordingly.
